KEITH W. SCHINDLER

DIVISION Academic Foundations

CONTACT

Johnson Hall - JH100J
(361) 582-2438
keith.schindler@victoriacollege.edu

EDUCATION

MASTER OF EDUCATION, COUNSELING AND STUDENT SERVICES 1998

University of North Texas, Denton Texas

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE, INDUSTRIAL ARTS – TEACHING 1983

University of North Texas, Denton Texas

COLLEGE TEACHING EXPERIENCE

VICTORIA COLLEGE, ADJUNCT INSTRUCTOR OF EDUC 1300

Spring 2014 to Present

OTHER WORK EXPERIENCE

VICTORIA COLLEGE, COUNSELOR/ADVISOR

February 2013 to June 2014

KENEDY ISD, MIDDLE SCHOOL/HIGH SCHOOL COUNSELOR

August 2006 – May 2010

SANGER ISD, HIGH SCHOOL COUNSELOR

August 2001 – May 2005

LITTLE ELM ISD, HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER

August 1990 – May 1997

LITTLE ELM ISD, MIDDLE SCHOOL COUNSELOR

August 1996 – May 2000

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT & TRAINING

- IDEA (Individuals with Disabilities in Education Act) Conference – Spring 2013 – 2014
- Section 504 Seminars – Throughout public education career
- Generation Poverty by Dr. Ruby Payne – 1992
- Assorted workshops and conferences, through out educational career, to build both counseling and teaching skills

SKILLS & ABILITIES	• Assessment results evaluation and establishment of strategies to address areas of weaknesses • Support of Special Needs Students • Determining of and guiding students into necessary course selections • Considerate, Patient and Empathetic • Able to interact with, and accept, challenging students • Enjoy working with and supporting others