VITAE

Jeff Wilson

Social Sciences Department
The Victoria College
2200 E. Red River St.
Victoria, TX 77901

jeffrey.wilson@victoriacollege.edu

EDUCATION

1997 Southwest Texas State University, Post-graduate work in Political Science:
Problems in International Politics
Economics and Politics of Scarcity
Democratic Theory - The First Amendment
Topics in Third World Politics
Problems in International Organization
Directed Readings and Research - The Development and Decline of the Soviet Military Structure

1988 Master of Arts Degree in History, University of Texas at Arlington:
Studies ranged from ancient to modern European and American topics:
British History 1848-Present; Early 20th Century Ireland
European Historiography; Jordanes and the Huns
European History post-1500; Medieval Spain
American Social and Intellectual History
20th Century American Political and Social Criticism
History of Cartography; California as an Island
20th Century American History; Post-1945 Political and Social Criticism
European History pre-1500; Norman Italy
Medieval European History; Erasmus, Luther, and the Turks
European Imperialism; Russian Imperial moves in 19th Century Asia
Masters thesis; Military History of the Fall of the Roman Empire, 200-500 C.E.

1984 Bachelor of Arts Degree in History, minor Political Science;
European to American topics, concentration on Soviet/American relations and Soviet studies:
European Diplomacy, 1815-Present
Second World War, 1939-45
The USSR Today; Russo-Finnish War
Undergraduate Seminar; Angolan Civil War
Communist Systems; Liberalization Since Stalin
Modern Critics: Russian History Since 1855; Political Development
Sino-Soviet Relations, Political Systems of East Asia
American National Security Policy

COLLEGE TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Fall 2011-present	Victoria College, Victoria, Texas: Online Instructor, Government.
Until recently	Central Texas College, Killeen, Texas: Professor of History and Government, San Saba unit, TDCJ. Adjunct Instructor of U.S. History and Government: Ft. Hood campus and Florence High School (teaching AP History and Government classes).
1998 - 2008	Tarleton (now Texas A&M) - Central Texas, Killeen, Texas: Adjunct Instructor, Government.
1998 - 2005	Temple College, Temple, Texas, Taylor and Cameron Campuses: Adjunct Instructor, History and Government.
1994 – 2010	Central Texas College, Fort Hood Campus: Adjunct Instructor of American History and Government.
1990 - 1993	Central Texas College, Killeen, Texas. PACE (Program for Afloat College Education); Adjunct Instructor of History and Government, teaching classes aboard deployed US Navy vessels. Cited for professionalism and dedication to teaching, Navy Campus Employee of the Quarter, Spring 1993.