Peter DeVries

Science, Mathematics, & P.E. Division
The Victoria College
2200 E. Red River St.
Victoria, TX 77901

Office Tel: (361) 485-6824 ext.3215

Peter.DeVries@victoriacollege.edu

Education

- M.S. in Biological Sciences from California Polytechnic University, Pomona, 2006
  - Thesis: "Descriptive model of bird species diversity based on land cover" utilized large scale survey data for statistical research into analysis of relationships examining niche and neutral theories of biodiversity.
- Single Subject Teaching Credential, in Biology and Chemistry, from California Polytechnic University, Pomona, 2002
- B.S. in Biological Sciences from University of California, Irvine, 1996
- B.S. in Chemistry from University of California, Irvine, 1996

College Teaching Experience

Victoria College: Associate Biology Professor (2013-present)

Citrus College: Adjunct Biology Instructor (2012)

Chaffey College: Adjunct Biology Instructor (2009-2012)

Rio Hondo College: Adjunct Biology Instructor (2011-2012)

Fullerton College: Adjunct Biology Instructor (2007-2008, 2010)

Victor Valley College: Adjunct Biology Instructor (2007-2009)

Mt. San Antonio College: Adjunct Biology Instructor (2007)

California Polytechnic University, Pomona: Teaching Assistant (2000-2001)

Courses Taught

- Anatomy and Physiology lectures and labs
- Anatomy lectures and labs
- General Biology lectures and labs
- Health Science lectures
- Environmental Science lectures
- Microbiology lab